

Creative expertise in plastics Evonik at FAKUMA

August 8, 2011

Out-of-the-ordinary solutions are nothing extraordinary for Evonik: This is the message the company plans to put across once again at this year's FAKUMA trade show in Friedrichshafen between October 18 and 22. Over the years, plastics processors have valued Evonik as a partner that has outstanding specialist expertise in the development of their innovative products. The producer of PLEXIGLAS® and of various VESTAMID® and VESTAKEEP® PEEK polyamide grades will be exhibiting solutions for lighting and automotive applications, electronics, and medical technology as well as sport and leisure at Booth 4117 in Hall A4.
